feedback

AR: Got the invoice through, rights totalling £872. We made a small loss.

VHA: Made a loss of about £43.98 on top of the £300 contribution, this is feasible to sustain on the society at this point in time, so we have decided to take this out of the society so won't be taking this out of show deposits this time.

She Loves Me update:

NO: Did the show! Probs haven't made a profit

GT: Why?

NO: Sales

VHA: Higher PA numbers than budgeted but not as many adults

NO: StageSoc hires are much higher, Xafsa started doing feedback

American Idiot update:

GT: We're doin a show, it's gonna be good, got a band, Dave put it on the website, they all have their music, we have decided that instead of tickets, we're going to have wristbands, Charlie's coming in to do rehearsal shots, v. staggered run on Saturday for people that have missed things, tech coming in to watch latter part of rehearsals, gonna have audition feedback before Easter, not sure who we are waiting on, Xafsa chased this

VHA: Sponsorship wise, still talking to Surburbia, still waiting but they seemed real keen, putting a pause on cast clothing until this, everything's gonna be here before intensive, union screens are a go

GT: Have a sound designer- Zav

XM: Going in on Saturday

The Trail to Oregon update:

BM: Currently doing fringe registration

PA: Defo doing preview in London!

BM: We get a ridiculous amount of publicity through that, digital screens around and outside the theatre, they flyer for us, anything we upload to our YouTube channel, they upload to theirs

PA: London preview on the 28th July. Currently thinking about rewards for a go fund me. Spoke this morning about weekend after AI having a first rehearsal, depending on people's schedules

VHA: Had a meeting with Sophie Howard about fundraising today to create a calendar for fundraising, to get most people involves, lots of joint fundraising.

WS: We're trying to change the logo, TG voted on yes or no to changing it and then had a discussion about whether to change it. They voted yes, to 1.1, with a backwards G.

VOTES TO CHANGE LOGO

Tours Update:

XM: Still haven't got a house

Ordinary Update:

JW: Had someone ask for me to talk to someone, will do that

A.O.B:

GT: Incase people: Grad ball clashes with the 24 again, it might not be on campus which is ok, if it is on campus, that's when we lose tech, new person running it this year so we might not even have radio mics, pitches need to be 4 weeks before at least- cos its stress.

NO: What is the date of 24?

GT: 9th-10th, relatively non-negotiable, unless next committee really struggle with it, I'll still be Theatrical rep, but probs not. Also, StageSoc are owed a tonne of money from the uni, soooo they've written a savage email and that's being looked into, so the union may chase you up on invoices, to check with the union.

GT: You hiring a self drive van?

BN: Oh yeah I applied for the van in funding
